

2.3.4

ICT support used by students in various learning situation

- i. Medium of instruction is English / Malayalam. The course is affiliated to Calicut University and recognized by the National council for teacher education government of India New Delhi.
- ii. Both boys and girls are eligible for admission.
- iii. The course is offered in four semester beginning in the month of June, July each year.
- iv. Practice teaching will be conducted in the 4 the semester by an external examination board constituted by the University.
- v. Internship (16 weeks-260 Marks)
- vi. We give importance to ICT based classes since constructivists based lesson plans is being followed.
- vii. Our students give importance to ICT based teaching which found to more effective in transacting content.
- viii. Biomechanics allows physical educators to identify exercises and physical activities that contribute to the physical development of various muscle groups and fitness components.
- ix. Kinesiology and physical education study the role exercise, physical movement and sports play in the development of human health and happiness.
- x. They apply sciences like biomechanics, anatomy, physiology and psychology to better understand how the human body responds to physical activity.
- xi. Our college always give importance to kinesiological activities which is being taken care by physical education and psychology department
- xii. We encourage sports in our college. Physical education department under the leadership of Haridas sir is always encouraging. Sports day is organized every year.
- xiii. We also participate in inter College athletes competitions, Badminton competitions